

DECLARATION:
To Account for Breaks in Training or Practice History

Instructions to Applicant:

- Use this form to declare and account for all periods, since your graduation from medical school, during which you did not practise medicine either as a postgraduate clinical trainee or as a clinical practitioner in any capacity (observerships and research appointments included).
- Declare only those periods of six continuous months or more.
- Once completed, enclose with application form and return to the College's Registration Department.
- Do not return form if you have no breaks to declare.

Applicant's Declaration:

I declare that after I graduated from medical school, I ceased practising medicine for six continuous months or more on the following occasions:

Dates (mo./yr. to mo./yr.)	Reason for Break (explain why you took a break, e.g. maternity leave, vacation, immigration; attach additional pages as necessary)
